

PUBLIC NOTICE

The Maritime Area Planning Act 2021 and the European Communities (Birds and Natural Habitats) Regulations 2011

Iarnrod Eireann has applied to the Maritime Area Regulatory Authority (“MARA”) for a maritime usage licence under section 117 of the Maritime Area Planning Act 2021 to undertake geotechnical and geophysical site investigations to inform the East Coast Railway Infrastructure Protection Project (ECRIPP) required to defend long sections of the Dublin to Rosslare coastal rail line from coastal erosion and flooding. The proposed survey works will include rotary cores, cable percussive with rotary follow-on, window samples, sediment samples, percussion boreholes, foundation inspection pits (vacuum X or hand dug), dynamic probes, slit trenches and a geophysical survey. Groundwater monitoring will also be undertaken at 33 borehole locations. The Licence duration is for 12 months.

Screening for appropriate assessment determination

On 1st August 2024 following screening by MARA under regulation 42 of the European Communities (Birds and Natural Habitats) Regulations 2011 (S.I. 477 of 2011), a determination was made that the proposed maritime usage referred to above requires an appropriate assessment. The determination was made on the basis of objective scientific information which indicated that it cannot be excluded that the proposed maritime usage individually or in combination with other plans or projects, will have a significant effect on a European site. A copy of the determination is available at LIC230028 - MARA - The Maritime Regulator

In considering this matter MARA had regard to the following:

- The screening for appropriate assessment report prepared by MARA;
- The environmental report prepared by MARA;
- The application documents submitted by Iarnrod Eireann which informed the screening for appropriate assessment.

Public Consultation

A Public Consultation will open shortly, at which time there will be an opportunity to make a submission(s) to MARA on the application. All information regarding the Public Consultation will be available on MARA's website at the following link: LIC230028 - MARA - The Maritime Regulator

Judicial review of the screening for appropriate assessment determination

The validity of the screening for appropriate assessment determination may be questioned by judicial review under order 84 of the Superior Courts Rules (S.I. No 15 of 1986) in accordance with chapter 8, part 5 of the Maritime Area Planning Act 2021, any application for leave to apply for judicial review must be made promptly and in any event within eight weeks of the date of this notice. Practical information on judicial review can be obtained from the Citizens Information Board, Ground Floor, George's Quay House, 43 Townsend Street, Dublin 2 (www.citizensinformation.ie) or from the Courts website (www.courts.ie).
